TARGA 50 GRAN TURISMO

TARGA 50 GRAN TURISMO

THIS SPORTS CRUISER WAS BUILT ON THE PRINCIPLE OF NO COMPROMISE

We looked at how people wanted to move around a boat of this size, how much space they ideally needed and how they would like things laid out. Our naval architects and designers then went back to the drawing board until we had created the space required for voluminous rooms with a true 'luxury apartment' feel. The result is a sports cruiser that's as striking inside as it is outside.

Of course, this is a true GRAN TURISMO and the smooth-sliding roof, large windows and rear glazing open up the whole boat to the world surrounding you.

The Targa 50 has been designed with sociability in mind. The galley has been positioned aft so you can prepare food and drinks while remaining at the centre of any activities, and the hull design has allowed for more floor space to move around freely and pass one another comfortably.

This really comes into its own in the master cabin that defies its position in the hull to offer a luxuriously wide room with a large en suite. Equally impressive are the two twin guest cabins, both of which can be easily converted to provide double beds, and a real rarity on a boat of this size is the large lazarette, or optional crew cabin. On deck, the hydraulically-powered sunshade keeps the cockpit seating area delightfully free from direct sunlight.
